

RED LION YOUTH FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

Parent Code of Conduct

- ü Remain in the spectator area during games.
- ü Don't advise the coach on how to coach.
- ü Don't make derogatory comments to coaches, officials or parents of either team.
- ü Don't try to coach your child during practice or games.
- ü Alcoholic beverages are prohibited at practices or games.
- ü Cheer for your child's team, no profanity or negative speech.
- ü Show interest, enthusiasm and support for your child.
- ü Be in control of your emotions.
- ü Volunteer when ever possible, when asked by the coaches.
- ü Show appreciation for the coaches, officials and other volunteers who donate their time to conduct league events.
- ü Contact the league president or a league official regarding any concerns that arise during the season. Do not approach the coaches or officials.
- ü Any misconduct as described above will be reason for your dismissal from the event.

The Red Lion Youth Football Association is committed to operating in the best interest of the young athletes who participate in our program. Please protect their opportunity to participate in our program in a safe and productive environment.

Thank You for Your Support.

The RLYFA Administration